The Page element allows the teacher to provide information to the student. Teachers may also refer to this as a Dashboard.

Folders are used to organize your resources.

The Assignment element is used when a student is required to submit an assignment in VERGE.

Allows teachers to collaborate in an active conversation with students.

When you see Test element, this means that there is an assessment or informal quick check of skills.

The Task element allows the teacher to provide a digital list of tasks that the student must complete.

The Messenger is used to send messages to your teacher.