

CLICK ON THE IMAGE TO VIEW THE VIDEO.

The educational experiences found in Historically Black Colleges and Universities are preparing students to succeed in a world that is in great need of their perspectives. Dr. Robinson provides insight into the way considering culture in under-served populations is key to helping students learn, lead, and thrive. Dr. Elwood Robinson is the thirteenth chancellor of Winston-Salem State University. He has over 30 years of higher education experience working at Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) and Minority Serving Institutions. He received his bachelor's and master's degrees from HBCUs.

Tradition: An HBCU Experience is a documentary that takes a look into the culture of Historically Black Colleges and Universities in America as compared to Predominantly White Institutions. Tailgating, Student organizations, and Lineage.

Part # 1 of this video will go into the history of the Historical Black Colleges and Universities, including the founders, their purpose.

Tell Them We are Rising The Story of Black Colleges and Universities - Documentary

HBCU Homecoming 2020 is going down! We welcome HBCU incoming students, alumni and anyone ready to celebrate to come enjoy the live step show, battle of the bands and live concert featuring 2 Chainz, Saweetie, Chloe x Halle, Ari Lennox, NLE Choppa, Ty Tribbett, as well as appearances by Desi Banks, Pretty Vee, Lance Gross and more. Plus performances from Jackson State University's Sonic Boom and FAMU's Marching 100!