DCSD Superintendent to Deliver
 State of the District Address on Thursday

Dr. Horton Expected to Outline Successes, Current Challenges, and Future Plans

(STONE MOUNTAIN, GA) – The DeKalb County School District (DCSD) is proud to announce its annual State of the District address, delivered by Superintendent Dr. Devon Q. Horton. This year’s theme, “Soaring Together: New Levels, New Heights,” celebrates DCSD’s recent achievements, examines the challenges ahead, and charts a bold new course for the District’s future.

Community and business partners, elected officials, DeKalb County School Board members, DeKalb Schools Educational Foundation Board members, and DCSD leaders will gather at the innovative Fernbank Science Center, 156 Heaton Park Drive, in Atlanta, on Thursday, March 27, 2025, from 5:30 p.m. to 8 p.m.

The superintendent will provide a detailed update on the District’s future, including evidence-based strategies and initiatives to promote academic, social, and emotional success for all students.

Dr. Horton will be available for interviews with accredited media representatives after the event.
